UNIVERSITY PHYSICIANS OFFERS SEMINAR ON HYPERTENSION

For more information contact Patrice Guilfoyle at (601) 815-3940 or email pguilfoyle@umc.edu.

JACKSON, Miss. – Dr. Zeb Henson, a University of Mississippi Health Care physician specializing in internal medicine and pediatrics, will present, "What's the Hype with Hypertension?" on Thursday, May 12 from 6-7:30 p.m. at University Physicians – Grants Ferry in Flowood.

Board certified in hypertension, Henson will define the condition and risk factors and discuss the latest treatment options for hypertension. Because there are no symptoms, many people do not know they have high blood pressure or that their health is at risk. Free blood pressure checks will be offered at this informational seminar.

Reservations are required and can be made by calling (601) 815-1974.

The University of Mississippi Medical Center, located in Jackson, is the state's only academic medical center. University of Mississippi Health Care represents the clinical programs of the Medical Center and includes University Hospitals and Health System and University Physicians, the faculty group practice. UMMC encompasses five health science schools, including medicine, nursing, health related professions, dentistry and graduate studies, as well as the site where University of Mississippi pharmacy students do their clinical training. The Medical Center's threefold mission is to educate tomorrow's health-care professionals, conduct innovative research to improve human health, and to provide the highest quality care available to the state's citizens. A major goal of the Medical Center is the improvement of the health of Mississippians and the elimination of health disparities.
