For more information contact Patrice Guilfoyle at (601) 815-3940 or pguilfoyle@umc.edu.

JACKSON, Miss. – University Women's Care is offering childbirth classes in November, beginning at 6 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 8 in Wiser Hospital for Women and Infants at the University of Mississippi Medical Center. They will also be held each subsequent Tuesday for the month at the same time on Nov. 15, 22 and 29. The last night of class will include a tour of Wiser and a car seat safety check. These childbirth classes are taught by a certified Lamaze educator and are for expectant parents who plan to deliver at Wiser. Wear comfortable clothes and bring two pillows. The class is free but space is limited. Register online at www.umhc.com/women or call (601) 984-BABY (2229) for more information.

The University of Mississippi Medical Center, located in Jackson, is the state's only academic medical center. University of Mississippi Health Care represents the clinical programs of the Medical Center and includes University Hospitals and Health System and University Physicians, the faculty group practice. UMMC encompasses five health science schools, including medicine, nursing, health related professions, dentistry and graduate studies, as well as the site where University of Mississippi pharmacy students do their clinical training. The Medical Center's threefold mission is to educate tomorrow's health-care professionals, conduct innovative research to improve human health, and to provide the highest quality care available to the state's citizens. A major goal of the Medical Center is the improvement of the health of Mississippians and the elimination of health disparities.
