

UMMC Public Health and General Preventive Medicine Residency PGY-2 Sample Block Diagram ¹
Activities	Blocks By Month
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
MSCI Degree ²		Fall Semester (9-12 hours)					Spring Semester (9-12 hours)					Summer Session ³
Site	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	3	3
Rotation Name	Health Systems Management and Administration			Employee Wellness	Emergency Preparedness		Quality Improvement/ Patient Safety			Research	Mississippi State Department of Health ⁴
Clinical	Two ½-day sessions per week for 8 ½-day sessions per month and 96 ½-day sessions per PGY-2 year approximately
% Outpatient	20	20	20	20	20	20	20	20	20	20	25	25
Site	1	1	1	1	1	1	1 & 2	1 & 2	1 & 2	1 & 2	1 & 2	1 & 2
Resident Seminar	Weekly Lectures, presentations and case discussions Monthly Journal Club or Resident case presentations Quarterly ethics/professionalism case presentations
% Research	0	0	0	0	0	0	10	10	10	80	10	10

Notes:

PGY-2 Residents will receive 3 weeks of vacation to be scheduled at the resident’s discretion with approval of the Program Director. No more than 1 week of vacation may be taken during a specific block.

¹ It is estimated that residents will spend approximately 50 hours per week in academics, rotations, clinical activities and resident seminar.

² Master of Science in Clinical Investigation

³ 6-9 credit hours during this session

⁴ Residents will participate in rotation specific outpatient clinics in addition to their routine clinical activities

UMMC Public Health and General Preventive Medicine Residency PGY-3 Block Schedule
Activities	Blocks By Month
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
MSCI Degree ⁵	Summer Session	Fall Semester (approximately 3-6 hours)					Spring Semester (approximately 3-6 hours)
Site	3	3	4	5	5	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
Rotation Name	Mississippi State Department of Health ⁴		Health Policy	VA ⁴	VA ⁴	Research	Tobacco Cessation ⁴	School Health ⁴	Elective	Elective	Community Health	Elective
Clinical	Two ½-day sessions per week for 8 ½-day sessions per month and 96 ½-day sessions per PGY-3 year approximately
% Outpatient	25	25	20	50	50	20	25	40	20	20	20	20
Site	1 & 2	1 & 2	1 & 2	1 & 2	1 & 2	1 & 2	1 & 2	1 & 2	1 & 2	1 & 2	1 & 2	1 & 2
Resident Seminar	Weekly Lectures, presentations and case discussions Monthly journal club or resident case presentations Quarterly ethics/professionalism case presentations PGY-3 Resident Critical Review Presentation
% Research	20	20	20	20	20	80	20	20	20	20	0 ⁶	0 ⁶

Notes:

PGY-3 Residents will receive 3 weeks of vacation to be scheduled at the resident's discretion with approval of the Program Director. No more than 1 week of vacation may be taken during a specific block.

⁵ MSCI = Master of Science in Clinical Investigation

⁶ Research will be in conjunction with the MSCI Capstone Project which must be completed prior to graduation so research time is not anticipated beyond month 10.