Shalom Y’all: Jewish Life in Mississippi

Dr. Stuart Rockoff
Jack Cristil, voice of Mississippi State University sports for 58 years
Jewish Peddler
Isaac Bernheim
Aaron Beekman’s store in Natchez
Business Record from S. Bernheimer & Sons, Port Gibson
Cohn Brothers Store in Lorman
Marks-Rothenberg Store, Meridian
Sam Rosenthal, mayor of Rolling Fork, 1924-1969
Confederate Monument in Brookhaven given by George Bowsky
B’nai Israel, Natchez, constructed in 1872
Confirmation at Beth Israel, Clarksdale, MS - 1934
Jewish-owned Stores Closing for the High Holidays, Meridian, MS
Anshe Chesed Synagogue, Vicksburg
Jane Wexler, Second Queen of the Natchez Pilgrimage, 1932
Celeste Orkin
Henry S. Jacobs campers leading services at Port Gibson synagogue, 1974
Communities that have had Jewish congregations

- Biloxi
- Brookhaven
- Canton
- Clarksdale
- Cleveland
- Columbus
- Greenville
- Greenwood (2)
- Hattiesburg
- Jackson
- Laurel
- Lexington
- Meridian (2)
- Natchez
- Summit
- Port Gibson
- Rolling Fork
- Tupelo
- Vicksburg
- Woodville
Communities that currently have Jewish congregations

- Biloxi
- Cleveland
- Columbus
- Greenville
- Greenwood
- Hattiesburg
- Jackson
- Meridian
- Natchez
- Tupelo
- Vicksburg
Jackson - the largest Jewish community in Mississippi
Shalom Y’all: Jewish Life in Mississippi

Dr. Stuart Rockoff
srockoff@mhc.state.ms.us