

Discrimination is Against the Law

The University of Mississippi Medical Center (UMMC) complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, gender, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, religion, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, or genetic information. UMMC does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, gender, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, religion, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, or genetic information.

UMMC:

- Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:
 - Qualified sign language interpreters
 - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats).
- Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
 - Qualified interpreters
 - Information written in other languages

If you need these services, contact Leslye Bastos at (601) 984-2027.

If you believe that UMMC has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with: Cecelia Bass at 2500 North State Street, Jackson, MS 39216 or by phone at (601) 815-5150, fax (601) 815-5145, or email cabass@umc.edu. You can file a grievance in person or by mail, fax, or email. If you need help filing a grievance, Cecelia Bass is available to help you.

You can also file a civil rights complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights, electronically through the Office for Civil Rights Complaint Portal, available at <https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/ocr/portal/lobby.jsf>, or by mail or phone at:
